

CYDSA (BUY, T.P. MXN$42.00)

Raised a MXN$2.094 billion long-term bank loan to prepay short-term debt

CYDSA announced it has raised a 10-year MXN$2.094 billion long-term bank loan with Bancomext, with a one-year grace period to pay the increasing quarterly capital amortizations and an interest rate of TIIE at 91 days plus 150 bps. The company will use such resources to prepay the outstanding balance of the MXN$3.0 billion short-term loan with Santander, which will extend its maturity profile. Our recommendation is BUY with a MXN$42.00/share target price.
